Hotels

In the following, a list of recommended hotels is reported. When “Special rate ENEA” is mentioned in the description below, special rates have been agreed between ENEA and the Hotels. In such cases please mention “Convenzione ENEA” while making reservations. However, remember that the special rates may change due to season and or other reasons (i.e. Jubilee and other special events). Since, many tourists are in Rome in any period of the year it is suggested that you contact the hotel for reservations, as soon as possible.

The location of the hotels is such that the venue of the meeting is easily reachable by public transportation, even in the case they are far from the meeting venue, and at the same time they are close to cultural and artistic points of interest.
